Category of entry: (circle) Red Green Novelty Salsa

Rules:

Judges will choose the best red chili, green chili, novelty chili, and salsa for amateurs and again for professional cooks. The people's choice award will go to the best overall entry. There will be nine (9) awards total.

Red chili contains meat, but no beans. Green chili includes meat, but no beans. Novelty chili is any that contains beans, pasta, or is vegetarian. Salsa may be red or green.

Contestants will provide two (2) gallons of chili or one (1) gallon of salsa for tasting. Contestants will provide serving utensils. Contestants may decorate and serve the public from their entry's serving area. Contestants may not be in the Activity Tent during judging.

The County Fair will provide electricity, corn tortilla chips, small cups and plates, napkins and spoons. Label your crock pot and other items, as the County Fair is not responsible for lost property.

Contestants need to provide their own heavy duty electrical extension cord.

Schedule for Sunday afternoon, August 7, 2011:

Noon Volunteers accept and code all entries at Activity Tent.

1:00 pm Contestants leave Activity Tent. Judges taste in blind judging.

2:00 pm The public is invited to taste all entries. People's Choice Award ballots will be available at the central host table.

3:00 pm People's Choice ballots are counted. Awards are announced.

Contestants, please, sign that you understand the rules and schedule of the 2011 Lee Sterling Chili Cook-Off. Thanks!
